About the New American Chamber of Commerce (NACC)

NACC is a not-for-profit organization founded in 2005 to advance, promote, and facilitate the success of New American businesses. The backbone of the NACC is the diversity of its member entrepreneurs and small business owners.

The NACC mission is accomplished by the following:

- Implementing and strengthening local and national programs that assist the economic development of New American firms;
- Increasing business relationships and partnerships between the corporate sector and New American-owned businesses;
- Promoting international trade between New American businesses in the United States and Immigrant Countries;
- Monitoring legislation, policies and programs that affect the New American business community;
- Providing technical, networking and other assistance to our member entrepreneurs, small business owners, business associations and professionals.
